Not only do we have great databases to locate literary criticisms, but also within those databases are great literary series geared towards specific types of literature such as short stories, drama, contemporary, etc.

Short Story Criticism Online is one of those series. To locate articles about an author or about a short story in this series, the best database to use is Gale Literary Sources.

On the Advance Search page follow these keyword search term suggestions:

1. Type the author’s name in the first search box
   a. Change the pull down to Person by or About
2. Check Full Text under More Options
3. Scroll through and check Short Story Criticism Online under Product/Series
4. Click Search