Grammar Exercise #2: Punctuating Quotations (50 points)
Add all necessary punctuation to each sentence. DO NOT CHANGE ANY WORD. Write clearly so that I can see exactly where you are putting the punctuation. The original reads: And yet she had loved him—sometimes.

1. And yet she had loved him—sometimes Kate Chopin writes (41)

2. Kate Chopin writes And yet she had loved him—sometimes (41)

3. And yet Kate Chopin writes she had loved him—sometimes (41)

4. Louise Mallard admits that she had loved him—sometimes (Chopin 41)

5. Louise Mallard had loved her husband—sometimes (Chopin 41)
