HCC Plant City Campus Library provides access to several types of resources to guide and assist in academic achievement. All you need is your Student ID.

Available Resources

Books:
- Non-Fiction, Literature & Fiction Titles – check out with valid student ID
- eBook – check out with valid student ID

Magazines and Newspapers: in library use only

Computers:
- Electronic Databases – HCC subscribes to over 100 academic databases providing access to journal, magazine and newspaper articles, videos, books, images, audio clips

Searching the Catalog

Steps:
1. Click on Advanced Search on the HCC Libraries home page.
2. Type “selling organs” in the Keyword search space.
3. Material Type: Items in Library
4. Within: Plant City or HCC

Search Parameters:
- Keyword: “selling organs”
- Material Type: Items in Library
- Within: Plant City or HCC

See the Refine My Results section in the left column sidebar for ways to narrow your search results.

To contact your librarian:
Karen Dufraine
kdufraine@hccfl.edu
813-757-2121
Using Library Databases

Go to http://libguides.hccfl.edu/hcclibraries. Under Library Resources, click on Databases A-Z.

In order to access any of HCC Library’s electronic databases you must enter your Borrower (Student) ID and PIN (last 4 digits of Borrower ID).

Type in your keyword or search topic.

1. Click on Full-Text
2. Narrow search results by Document Type, Subject/Topic, Publication Date
3. Click on title of article

Article Review
Title, Author, Source, Date, Abstract (if there is one)

Tools BoxCitation Tools: Need to cite your sources for the information used in your paper.

Good databases to use when searching for magazine, newspaper and journal articles:

- Academic OneFile
- Academic Source Complete
- Business Collection
- Business Source Complete
- Health Source – Nursing/Academic
- Issues & Controversies
- OmniFile Full Text
- Opposing Viewpoints
- MEDLINE Full Text
- Social Science Full Text

Tools BoxCitation Tools: Need to cite your sources for the information used in your paper.

Please see the Research Guide (LibGuide) that is for ENC1101 classes for more information on utilizing HCC Libraries Online: http://libguides.hccfl.edu/c.php?g=472873.

To contact your librarian:
Karen Dufraine      kdufraine@hccfl.edu      813-757-2121